[Shri A.S. Manohar, Adv. for petitioner]
[Shri S.B. Ahirkar, Adv. for respondents]

CORAM:- A.B. CHAUDHARI, J.
DATED :- 30.07.2007.

Shri Man Mohan, Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, New Delhi is present through Shri Ahirkar, learned Central Government Counsel in response to the notice of contempt, issued by this Court and has tendered unconditional apology by filing an affidavit.

Upon taking instructions from him, Shri Ahirkar, Central Government Counsel makes a statement that the Ministry has already forwarded the papers to the Central Pension Accounting Office with a direction to finalize and make payment of the pension dues of the petitioner. He further makes a statement that within a month the entire process would be completed and, thereafter, the payment shall be made along with arrears as calculated by the said office. Considering the statement made by Central Government Counsel, the present contempt petition can be disposed of. Statement accepted.

Contempt Petition is disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
